FIFTIETH SESSION OF THE STATE CONFERENCE.

Bishop Granberry Presiding--The Bagwell Matter--Trinity College Endowment--The Appointments.

The North Carolina Annual Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church South, convened in its Fiftieth Session in the town of Reidsville, N. C., on Wednesday morning December 1st, 1886, at 10 o'clock, Bishop John C. Granberry, presiding.

Owing to crowded space it will be impossible for THE SENTINEL to give a detailed account of the proceedings. We only notice some of the most important points of general interest that were brought before the meeting.

Resolutions were passed to endow Trinity College to the amount of 100,000 and to put such agencies into operation necessary to secure the endowment and that each member of the Conference use his individual influence to send one Student to Trinity College.

The following is the report of the committee on the case of Dr. J. T. Bagwell:

We, the committee appointed by Bishop J. C. Granberry, Dec. 2nd, 1886, to try the Rev. J. T. Bagwell D. D., on a charge of Immorality, beg leave to report, that after a long, searching and impartial hearing of the evidence and circumstances of the case, with much prayer for Divine guidance, do unanimously find the charge and specifications sustained and, therefore, declare the said J. T. Bagwell expelled from the ministry and membership of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South. P. L. Hermon, W. C. Norman, J. W. Jenkins, A. R. Raven, W. S. Bone, T. J. Gattis, T. A. Boone, G. W. Ivey, J. T. Gibbs, J. D. Arnold, J. N. Cole, J. J. Rann, B. B. Culbreth, L. W. Crawford, President.

The Bishop declared the said John T. Bagwell expelled from the ministry and membership of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, W. M. Robey, counsel for the defense reserved the right of appeal, subject to its action hereafter.

REPRESENTATIVE YOUNG MEN,

WHO ARE TO SHAPE NORTH CAROLINA'S HISTORY IN THE PRESENT GENERATION.

Scions of a Revivified South Who Will Build Up Our Waste Places and Infuse New Life Into Our Political, Industrial and Educational Structure.

PAPER NUMBER TWELVE.

Dennison Worthington, Esq., Solicitor of Third District.

BY W. C. LAMB.

D. WORTHINGTON, ESQ.

Col. Dennison Worthington was born in Murfreesboro, N. C., and is a son of the late Dr. R. H. Worthington, an eminent physician of the Eastern part of the State. He entered the Confederate Army at the early age of seventeen years and remained until the close of the war. He was wounded and captured in battle 6th of May 1864 and held as hostage by the Federal Government for several months.

After finishing his course in law he began the practice of law in Winton, Hertford county, N. C. Removing in 1878 to Williamston, Martin county, N. C., he was associated in the practice with the Hon. James Edwin Moore, one of the brightest and most promising lawyers in the East. He was elected to the Legislature in '81 from Martin county, which had heretofore elected a Republican. In '83 he was re-elected and was prominent for Speaker. He served this session as Speaker pro tem, Chairman of the Joint Committee to redistrict the State, Chairman of the Committee on House Rules and was selected by the joint caucus of the Democratic members to place the Hon. M. W. Ransom in nomination for the United States Senate.

In '85 he was re-elected to the Legislature and was again a candidate for Speaker but was defeated by the Hon. Thomas M. Holt, of Alamance county. He served as Chairman of the Committee on Judiciary and upon the Joint Committee to examine and audit the accounts of the State Treasurer and upon the Joint Committee on Judicial Reform.

In '85 he was appointed by Gov. Scales, Solicitor of the 3d Judicial District and the following year was re-nominated over that sterling Democrat and thoroughly equipped lawyer Col. Isaac A. Sugg, of Pitt county, and was re-elected over his competitor C. M. Bernard, of Pitt county, an Independent Republican, by nearly four thousand majority.

In the East Col. Worthington is exceedingly popular; in the administration of the law he is eminently conscientious, incorruptible and just and the great and expansive powers of his office are employed with a fine sense of discrimination to punish the guilty and to shield the weak and innocent. He has given entire satisfaction to his

District and is universally regarded as faithful, able, and incorruptible.

"Children go to your old home, sunny Africa!" is the heading of a printed circular informing the colored people that a train will leave Fort Mills on the 25th of December, and in 36 hours they will be in New York, where they are to take an emigrant ship bound for Africa under the United States flag.—Charlotte Chronicle.

Old Town, in Forsyth county, is an ancient and very small village. This settlement was started in 1753 by building a church which is of stone and is standing to-day, notwithstanding it is 133 years old. This settlement at first consisted of twelve men, and then thirteen women were sent them, and they cast lots to see which of these each of them should get. All these persons lived in one house, building shelves on the wall to sleep in.—Salem Press.

AT THE NATIONAL CAPITAL.

Congress Settled Down to Business—Cox and Hewitt.

Special Correspondence of the Sentinel.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 13.—Congress, in less than a week from its re-opening, has settled down to the serious consideration of business. The reassembling of both the Senate and House were accompanied by scenes customary on such occasions. There were the usual crowds of spectators in the galleries who looked down upon the same tumultuous disorderly crowd on the floor of the House, all talking at once and at the top of their voices and upon the quiet, slow moving men on the floor of the Senate Chamber, who began the new session with as little flurry as on any day of the old one.

There were the usual hand-shakings and exchange of greetings and flower bedecked desks, the Democratic side being the most favored florally, which caused some Republicans to remark that the change of flowers showed the change of the administration. To the victors belong the flowers. Representatives S. S. Cox and Abram Hewitt were the lions of the opening day. When they entered the hall arm in arm, they were greeted by a round of applause. Mr. Hewitt received congratulations upon his election to the Mayoralty, and expressions of regret upon his retirement from Congress. Those who had served in former Congresses with Mr. Cox gathered round him cordially, and those who did not know him sought introductions. Representative Sayers, of Texas, who occupied last session, the seat so long used by Mr. Cox, gracefully surrendered it to its former occupant and took the one vacated by Mr. Pulitzer.

Mr. Cox has already added to his record by introducing a bill to prevent representatives from receiving two salaries at the same time. He thus manifests his intention to decline the Congressional salary which has accrued since Mr. Pulitzer's resignation. Republican papers gleefully distorted a recent statement to make it appear that Mr. Cox had applied for and was trying to get two salaries, one as minister to Constantinople, and one as Congressman. As a matter of fact, he inquired of the Comptroller of the Treasury as to the exact money due him under the law so that he could act intelligently concerning it. Comptroller Durham told him he was entitled to back pay since Mr. Pulitzer resigned, and this bill just introduced shows what Mr. Cox intended at the time to do about it.

While the President's message takes one all over Europe, to the Samoan Islands, Siberia, the Spanish Antilles, to Mexico, over South America, and into Canada and Alaska, the five topics which excite the strongest interest here are the Tariff, the currency, the labor question, civil service, and District of Columbia affairs. The tariff reformers are all pleased and some of them are enthusiastic. The protectionists say the message is conservative enough for them, the ultra silver men make complaints as was expected, and the Republicans criticize the document as a whole, and from force of habit.

Some of the more sluggish members of Congress predict that little can be done during the session beyond the passage of the appropriation bills. Others equally wise say there is more chance for work during a short than a long session, and they expect to be very active from now until the fourth of March. In fact, there is little temptation to demagoguism, and talking for votes now and there is no reason why this Congress should not do more in January and February than in all the previous months of its life. The members are all either elected or defeated for the Fiftieth Congress, and mere partisan maneuvers will not effect them. Then by the Committee work having been done last session bill are ready for action, and legislation is in excellent position to be pushed to completion.

Two years ago Republican prophets were positive the country would go to ruin in consequence of a restoration of the Democrats to power. Now they are compelled to see a steady and general return of industrial and commercial prosperity. The facts and figures of all the Government reports show this result and indicates a largely increased volume of business throughout the country. There is nothing so convincing as truth, but the enemies of the Administration say: "It is Cleveland's luck."

We learn upon good authority that R. R. Badgers, President of the Wilmington and Weldon Railroad Company, intends visiting our "city" this week and making a trip to Lucknow on the Fayetteville and Wilson Short Cut and also a trip to Fayetteville in order to determine the most feasible line for extending the Clinton and Warsaw line to one of those points.—Clinton Caucasian.
